16) Under instructions from the Secretary Member I discussed the question again with Mr Gundappa. He represents that he will buy the very best equipment available in accordance with the advice of the Supdt Govt Printing and that the type of machinery being in common demand for printing work, it is can be expected to maintain the value at any time. In this view the machine can be taken as security not for half its value but three quarters at least. For the rest he is unable to furnish any security of immovables. His brother is running a book shop and Mr. Gundappa is prepared to offer him as collateral security. In view of the position Mr Gundappa holds, the loan may be sanctioned as a special case.

17) Mr. Gundappa has wanted a longer period than four years. The payment Rs 1500 a year with interest is rather too heavy. The loan may be made repayable in equal half-yearly instalments during a period of eight years

2b) The proposal is to sanction a loan of Rs.6,000/- to Mr. D. V. Gundappa on the security of the Machinery &c. to be purchased out of the loan and on the collateral security of his brother. According to the loan rules, the value of machinery etc., cannot be taken at more than 40% of the cost, for the purpose of the loan, and this value should not be less than 1½ times the loan amount. The suggestion that the value of the machinery etc., may be taken at 75% of the cost is therefore not not expedient financially. The separate property, if any, which his brother has got, is not stated. Mere collateral security for such a large sum is not sufficient even in cases where. Past experience has shown that all the conditions of the Government Order were strictly followed and loans were granted against adequate security, recovery became difficult on account of the heavy depreciation of the machinery, losses sustained in the business or other reasons, and Government have been put to loss. When this is the case, the grant of a loan without adequate security and not strictly in conformity with rules is not in the financial interests of Government, will lead to loss and is not financially acceptable. I would therefore respectfully suggest that Mr. Gundappa should be asked to furnish the requisite property security as required by the rules. If personal security is to be taken, it should be of a substantial person with property and not merely a nominal security (as his brother seems to be).

(41) Under Clause XIX of the Council Schedule, only "grant of loans of and above Rs.10,000" need be treated as Council matter. To

The Director of Industries & Commerce

Bangalore.

Sir,

I beg leave to submit this my application for the grant of an industrial loan of Rs.6,600/- to me, to enable me to establish and carry on a business of printing and book-binding in the city of Bangalore.

For the last ten years, I have been carrying on business in the book-publishing and book-selling line under the name of the Karnataka Publishing House. The Depot of my business is situated in the Fort, by the side of the Vani Vilas Institute, and is a popular resort of book-buyers in Bangalore. I am submitting with this some of the recent catalogues and announcements of my firm for kind reference. My firm has been enjoying the valued patronage of the Office of the Dewan, the General and Revenue Secretariat, the Central College and other University institutions, the Department of Public Instruction and various other Government Offices and public institutions. We have permanent customers not only among the trade, but also among the general public throughout the State and also in several places outside.

We have continuous and extensive transactions with many publishing and book-selling firms of high standing in England and other foreign countries. We represent some outside firms in Mysore as their local agents; and our own agents in London and New York are firms of well-known international standing.

Our relations with all, both customers and the trade, have always been characterized by trust and confidence and every one that has had business transactions with us has expressed complete satisfaction with our service and correctness.

From my experience of so many years, I have come to find that if the market for literature, particularly vernacular literature, should expand in the State, books should be offered for sale at a cheaper price than it is now possible for my firm to do. At present, when I have to get books printed by another press not my own, the margin of earning left for the trade, with the current levels of book-prices, is extremely precarious. With printing and book-binding establishment of my own, I am confident that I will be able to produce books in greater more economical way so as to serve the public better and expand this important line of business.

It is my intention to use the money, granted by you as a loan, for purchasing printing types, printing machine, cutting machine and other accessories and for carrying on the business of printing and book-binding. In selecting and purchasing the materials, and in regard to the other technical details of business, it is my intention to seek the advice and guidance of Mr.B.Srinivasa Iyengar, Superintendent. Government Printing and Stationery.

I may also be permitted to state that I possess many years' experience of printing business and that my brother, who will assist me in the business is a printer and book-binder, trained at the Government Press. I shall take every possible care, and precaution to ensure that the business is properly and efficiently managed.

The loan I seek is, of course, subject to the condition that Government will have a lien upon the plant and machinery till the loan is discharged and also subject to the other terms usually observed. As regards the rate of interest and the facilities for repayment, I pray that all possible concessions may kindly be granted to me.

It is my wish to set up the press in the course of the next few weeks; and I beg you may be pleased to extend your most sympathetic consideration to this request and sanction the loan very early. I shall be most grateful for this help.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

SIR,

Application for a loan of Rs 6,000/- from Mr. D.V.Gundappa Karnataka Publishing House, Bangalore.

With reference to your Memo No.D.5301/I&C.232-35-2 dated nil forwarding the application of Mr. D.V.Gundappa praying for a loan of Rs 6,000/-, I have the honour to state that Mr.Gundappa wants the loan for the purchase of a printing press to enable him to carry on the business of printing, publishing and book binding.

At present he is getting all his books printed in several presses. His younger brother has undergone training in printing for six years in the Mysore Government Press, Bangalore, and is capable of managing the press. Mr. Gundappa hopes to get sufficient work for his press. He offers the security of the machinery that he intends purchasing out of the loan amount in addition to his personal security. He is a very able business man and I feel he will make a success of this venture.

I recommend that a loan of Rs 6,000/- may be sanctioned to him making it repayable in 8 half yearly instalments. The loan will carry interest at 6 per cent per annum. The application from the Secretariat is returned herewith.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Application for a loan of Rs.6,000/- from Mr. D.V. Gundappa, Karnataka Publishing House, Bangalore City.

With reference to your letter No. D.6129/I&C.232-35-4 dated 8-4-1936 on the above subject, I have the honour to state that on my addressing Mr. D.V. Gundappa in the matter he has written to me that the only immoveable property he has - a house in Nagasandra Road, Basavangudi, Bangalore, worth about Rs.8,500/- is the family property and that it is also encumbered to a Co-operative Bank. Letter dated 19th April 1936 from Mr. D.V. Gundappa, Proprietor, Karnataka Publishing House, Basavangudi, Bangalore City, to the Director of Industries & Commerce in Mysore, Bangalore.

Sub: Application for an Industrial Loan.

In reply to the kind enquiry in your letter No. D5-L.A. 52/35-36 dated the 15th April 1936, I regret to have to state that I have no immoveable property which I can give as security. The only immoveable property I have is the house in the Nagasandra Road in Basavangudi in which I am now living; and this belongs to my family. We bought this two years ago for Rs.6,500/- and have invested about Rs.2,000/- more upon it for certain additions and improvements. But part of the money for purchasing it was borrowed from a Co-operative Bank on the mortgage of this house; and the house is thus encumbered.

I may also be permitted to explain that I have invested about Rs.8,000/- on the stocks and in the working capital of my Book Depot; and it needs a still further investment. While this is so, it is not possible for a man like me to keep any money locked in immoveable properties.

The amount of the loan I have applied for is the minimum necessary to be laid out for a printing and binding concern on the scale I have in view. A reduction of the sum of the loan will only leave me crippled.

I therefore request that the loan applied for may kindly be granted to me on my own personal security. I need scarcely say I shall be most grateful for this special favour.

Dear Mr. Venkatanaranappa,

Reference:- Government Order No.D.6148-50/ I & C 232-35-6 dated 17th March 1937 sanctioning a loan of Rs 6,000/- to Mr. D.V. Gundappa.

One of the conditions laid in the Government Order is that Mr. D.V. Gundappa should give a personal collateral security. Mr. Gundappa saw me this afternoon and he stated that his own brother Mr. D.V. Rama Rao, Part Proprietor of the Karnataka Publishing House, Bangalore City, will be the personal collateral security. Beyond his interest in the Karnataka Publishing House, he has no other property.

I shall be obliged if you will kindly let me know if I can accept the above collateral security. Mr. Rama Rao has been in business for more than half a dozen years.

Yours sincerely
S Bosby
